DRAFT

Attendees had comments and questions on: the anticipated public consultation period that would extend over the local election period; considering venues at which discussion could take place on the proposed changes; and staff's plan to inform a new Board on these proposed changes. It was suggested that when the response draft is placed into the review process that a notation on possible venues for discussion is included as well as the suggestion that principals and PAC's meet to discuss the proposed changes and develop any appropriate feedback. The Superintendent noted the suggested feedback deadline date of December 31, 2018 and advised that staff anticipates resuming work on this policy only in January or February 2019.

It was AGREED that a RECOMMENDATION would be provided to the September 26, 2018 public meeting of the Board of Education (Richmond) to place Policy 517, 517-R and 517-G: A E (to be renamed A R /C S L) into the stakeholder review process AND upon approval of the revisions, the rescinding of Policy 515.1: P R S, Policy 515.3 and 515.3-R: P S, Policy 515.4: G R and Policy 515.5: P R S.
